

Educator Spotlight

Anajelly M. RECE

A nurturing environment is essential, and I treat the children in my care like family. They hold a special place in my heart, and I strive to make each child feel safe, cared for, and valued.

Experience:

- Over 10+ Years working with children
- Mother of one amazing son

Skills and Strengths

- Strong experience in infant care
- Naturally drawn to working with infants and kindergarten-aged children
- Excellent people skills and ability to build trusting relationships with children and families

Favourite Children's Books

- Who Made That Roar? by John Hansen – a fun and interactive story that captures children's attention and encourages curiosity, listening skills, and participation.

Education & Qualifications:

- Registered Early Childhood Education (RECE)